

- Are you a contractor whose company has at least three years of field experience cutting fiber cement siding with a circular saw?
- Has your company installed fiber cement siding on at least three large residential jobs?
- Do you have an upcoming job where fiber cement siding will be cut and installed for at least eight hours per day over a course of three days?